Performing Arts Scholarship

Eligibility:

Rose's Studio Scholarship Foundation offers Performing Arts Scholarships to graduating high school seniors who are excelling in the performing arts and students currently enrolled at a college or university who are also excelling in the performing arts. A minimum 2.5 GPA is required.

Awards:

The awards are for students excelling in the performing arts. All scholarships are "one-time only" awards payable for the current academic school year. Awards will be given at a location to be announced.

Application Requirements:

- Completed RSSF Arts scholarship application
- Official school transcript/grades from school in current attendance
- Copy of acceptance letter from college/university, if you are a graduating high school senior

Letters of Recommendation: Provide two letters of recommendation from individuals not related to you (i.e., teachers, religious leaders, guidance counselors, etc.). Recommendations should include information on applicant's character, artistic achievements and college potential.

Essay: Please submit a one-page typewritten essay describing your arts program, your career objectives and why you believe you should be selected for this scholarship. What obstacles/challenges do you face in meeting your objectives? Grammar and neatness count. Attach the completed essay to this application.

Deadline:

RSSF must receive the application (with all requirements listed) by May 1 for the Fall semester and October 31 for the Spring semester. No applications will be accepted after either of these dates. All scholarship applicants will be notified of the outcome by mail.
